

Dorđe Pejić, Medical Consultant and Clinical Nutritionist

In 2005, he graduated from the Medical College of Professional Studies, Department - Dietitian Nutritionist. Mr. Pejić's final paper was titled "Dietary Therapy in Gluten Enteropathy (Gluten Sensitivity – Celiac Disease)".

In 2008, Mr. Pejić started working as a clinical nutritionist at the Department of Dietetics and Patient Nutrition at the Clinical-Hospital Center Zvezdara in Belgrade.

In 2012, he became an associate at the Center for Chrononutrition Dr. Gifing.

In 2016, he became a permanent member of the Center's staff. Mr. Pejić works as a therapist in the fields of body detoxification, pain therapy and other acute conditions. His work also centers on the analysis and improvement of body composition and on individualized nutrition, tailored to suit different metabolisms.