

Dr. Aleksandra Pikula, Medical Consultant, Obstetrics and Gynecology Specialist, Cytologist

She was born in 1966. Obstetrics and Gynecology Specialist, Cytologist

Dr. Pikula is a longtime specialist physician at the Obstetrics and Gynecology Clinic Narodni Front, at the Department of Scientific Research and the Department of Screening and Detection of Cancer in the Lower Genital Tract. She is a staunch advocate of the holistic approach to medicine.

She has completed her undergraduate studies, and attained her specialty and subspecialty certifications in Belgrade. For over two decades, Dr. Pikula has worked in the fields of early diagnostics and treatment of cervical and lower genital tract cancer.

She has participated in numerous congresses and continuing medical education courses in the country and abroad. Dr. Pikula is a mentor and lecturer at the School of Cytology and Colposcopy of the OGC Narodni Front. In addition, she is a medical consultant in the field of lower genital tract diseases.