

Dr Jelena Popović, expert consultant, specialist in psychiatry and psychotherapist

She graduated from the Medical Faculty of the University of Belgrade, where she passed a specialist psychiatric examination.

Psychotherapy education started at Psihopolis Institute in 2008, possesses certificates Transactional analyst psychotherapist and national certificate for psychotherapy. She has been permanently employed at the Clinic for Psychiatry at the Clinical Center of Serbia since 2011.

Graduated from the Neuroscience Specialization at the Medical Faculty of the University of Belgrade, defended the academic specialization in 2011 "Congenital Myasthenic Syndromes".

Doctoral thesis in the field of neuroscience in the making.

Participant in numerous international and domestic congresses and continuous education.